EPIC Participant Advisory Panel (EPAP)

'A partnership between participants and researchers'

14 EPIC Participants
5 members of EPIC research team

Input into public engagement activities
Input into improving strategies used for information feedback
Presentations by invited specialist speakers—many by request
Consultation on future EPIC research plans and ideas
Constructively advised on updating EPIC website
Consultation on Ethics, Research & Development and Governance matters
Feedback of personal experience of taking part in health checks
Devising methods of promoting EPAP membership
Manning stands alongside researchers at public engagement events
Reviewing study documentation and questionnaires

RAPPORT Study
Panel studied by other research groups as a model for public involvement in research